

OVERTURN STORIES: How Europe can create good practices of migrant's inclusion

May 21st-23rd, 2018

Ortygia Business School - Siracusa, Italy

The Ortygia Business School Center for Migration, is pleased to invite you to attend the first event of the OVERSTO project. “OVERTURN STORIES: How Europe can create good practices of migrant's inclusion” is a 2-years project supported by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union.

With this project, Ortygia Business School Foundation, in particular its Center for Migration, acts as a HUB for all those researchers, academics, associations, NGOs, social enterprises, coming from all over Europe and municipalities, local politicians coming from Sicily and southern Italy to promote political debate and active closeness between the European level (commission, council, parliament, executive agencies) and territories at the boundaries.

To this purpose, during the following 2 years , the OBS Center or Migration will organize:

- 2 international conferences for academics;
- 2 meetings with European parliament representatives and other European countries politicians,
- 1 lectures for Sicilian PhD students;
- 3 seminars about African political situation with a focus on Libya and on those countries from where we register the highest flows.

The first event of the Project is organized in collaboration with the LSE Institute of Global Affairs and the ALUM Network (Alliance of Leading Universities on Migration) of which Ortygia Business School is Associate Member and will have three components: Focus on Libya, Main Conference on Human Mobility, and Citizens' Dialogue on Europe.

1) Focus on Libya – Monday 21st from 11:00 to 13:30

Invited Experts will present the latest highlights on the Libyan situation with the purpose to inform civil society on what is happening on the other side of Mediterranean Sea. This event is addressed to civil society and local organizations who deal with the migration phenomenon on field.

Speakers:

- Giuseppe Perrone, Ambassador of Italy to Libya
- Roberto Mignone, Chief of Mission to Libya, UNHCR
- Othman Belbeisi, Chief of Mission to Lybia, IOM
- Stefano Ronca, Chief Diplomatic Advisor to the Grand Chancellor of the Sovereign Order of Malta

2) Academic Conference– from Monday 21st, 14:30 to Wednesday 23rd, 13:00

The conference focuses on human mobility and migrants' contribution to society and it is dedicated to the memory of Peter Sutherland, a global champion of migrants and refugees, former UN Special Representative for Migration. More than 40 people among academics, politicians, European institutions' representatives will visit Sicily to arise their level of knowledge, debate and meet local experiences.

3) Citizens' Dialogue on Europe (in Italian) - Wednesday 23rd from 16:30 to 18:00

The Citizens' Dialogue on Europe: Mario Monti in conversation with Sylvie Goulard. The conversation will be held in Italian and will be followed by a Q&A session with the audience. Sicilian communities, civil society and practitioners dealing with the migration phenomenon on field are invited to participate in the dialogue.

Special thanks to our Sponsor Fondation pour l'Egalite des chances en Afrique who generously supports the event.

How to participate

The local community, organizations and practitioners who deal with the migration phenomenon on field, public institutions and private citizens are invited to attend the Focus on Lybia and the Citizens' Dialogue on Europe.
